

Positions in Organizational Behavior/HRM, International Business, Entrepreneurship, Technology & Innovation Management, and Strategy

Özyeğin University, Faculty of Business

The Management & Organization Group at Özyeğin University, Istanbul, Turkey invites applications for full-time positions in the fields of Organizational Behavior/HRM, International Business, Entrepreneurship, Technology & Innovation Management and Strategy, effective September 2021 or before.

Positions are available at the assistant, associate and full professor level.

We seek candidates who have, or show evidence of building, an established international research reputation through publications in leading journals in their respective fields. Candidates are expected to teach core and elective courses in our undergraduate and/or graduate (MBA, Executive MBA, and PhD) programs in their respective fields. Candidates are also expected to contribute to developing courses and programs and to departmental activities appropriate to their rank. Labor conditions, research support and teaching loads are competitive and commensurate with rank and experience.

Interested candidates should submit a full application package to applications-management@ozyegin.edu.tr. This should include an up-to-date CV, a cover letter, samples of research (publications, evidence of work-in-progress), teaching evaluations (when available), and any other relevant supporting materials. Candidates should also arrange for three recent letters of recommendation to be emailed to the same address.

Junior candidates should hold - or be in the process of finalizing - a PhD in Business Administration or a directly related field from an internationally reputable university. They are expected to demonstrate potential to independently conduct research and to publish in high quality journals. They are also expected to show relevant teaching experience.

Senior candidates should hold a PhD in Business Administration or a directly related field from an internationally reputable university. They should have significant international academic experience and they should demonstrate a record of publication in top-tier journals and a record of teaching experience in the relevant field.

About Özyeğin University, Faculty of Business

With around 1400 students enrolled in undergraduate, graduate and PhD programs, and 45 full-time faculty members, the Faculty of Business at Özyeğin University combines high standards in research, excellence in teaching and active cooperation with businesses. The faculty is in the process for accreditation by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB). The Faculty of Business features a young and dynamic collection of faculty members, more than ninety percent of whom have obtained their PhDs from top schools in the United States or Europe. Additional information about our School can be found at: <https://www.ozyegin.edu.tr/en/faculty-business>